

PRONUNCIATION: AH-BEE GOAL-HAR

As a second-generation Indian-American, Abhi Golhar was taught from a very young age how to win. Winning was the objective, regardless of the scars it left in its path. But the first time he encountered failure, he was forced to confront his own self-doubt and reevaluate what it means to succeed.

Today, an international speaker, private equity investor, and 3x nationally syndicated Wall Street Business radio host—Abhi is on a mission to redefine how we view self-doubt and its role in driving us forward toward greater success.

Please welcome to the stage...Abhi Golhar!
