

LONG BIO:

Abhi Golhar is a keynote speaker on professional services marketing, AI, and the science of loyalty. He is committed to helping leaders build unshakable trust and client relationships that go far beyond transactions.

In his keynote The Trust Crisis, Abhi reveals why postcards and promotions don't build loyalty but magical moments do. He teaches how to combine automation with empathy, using AI to scale personalized touchpoints that feel deeply human. From AI-driven texts and updates to handwritten-style notes and thoughtful follow-ups, Abhi shows how to design experiences that make clients stay for life.

A three-time nationally syndicated radio host, Abhi's insights have been featured in Forbes, Inc., and HuffPost. He has built a reputation for translating complex technology into simple, actionable strategies that any leader can use.

From standing-room-only sessions to sold-out events with multiple industries nationwide, Abhi's approach is consistently described as energizing, eye-opening, and immediately practical. His philosophy is clear: marketing gets you seen, loyalty gets you remembered.
