

PRONUNCIATION: AH-BEE GOAL-HAR

When disruption hits, most leaders freeze, hesitate, or cling to old playbooks. But what if doubt wasn't a weakness? What if it was the signal that a breakthrough was on the way?

Today's speaker believes uncertainty isn't the enemy—it is the edge. His keynote Move the Needle: The Future of Innovation introduces the Momentum Matrix, a practical framework for harnessing hesitation and turning it into clarity, friction into fuel, and uncertainty into unstoppable momentum.

He is a nationally recognized speaker, three-time syndicated radio host, and trusted voice featured in Forbes, Inc., and HuffPost. His work has helped thousands of leaders transform doubt into bold strategy and measurable growth.
